

TERMS OF USE FOR PRODUCTS, MATERIALS AND RELATED SERVICES (GTK'S OPEN PRODUCT LICENCE), THAT INCLUDE A RIGHT TO RE-USE AND MODIFY THE MATERIAL FREELY

General information

The products, materials and services related to them are produced, and their copyright, database protection and other immaterial rights are owned by Geological Survey of Finland (hereinafter GTK, licensor) or its contract partners. User refers to a natural or legal person who makes use of the material covered by this licence and a service related to the material.

When using the material, the original source and the revision year of the material must be mentioned in the service that uses the material or a part of it:

[The individualized name of the product/data] © Geological Survey of Finland [year]

or mention about modification of the material:

[The individualized name of the product/data], modified data © Geological Survey of Finland [year]

You must mark the material as either a) presented as is or b) modified.

The user accepts the terms of this licence by receiving the material or using the service.

Terms of the licence

If no other terms or conditions for the use of materials have been set in writing or if no other terms or conditions have been set in the service related to the material or during the distribution of the material, the right of use will be granted for the material with the following terms and conditions:

Rights of use

This licence grants a worldwide, irrevocable parallel limited right of use. According to the terms of the licence, the service and/or downloaded material can be freely:

- copied, distributed and published,
- modified and utilised commercially and non-commercially,
- inserted into other products and
- used as a part of a software application or service.

The interface service and similar services provided by GTK and included in this licence may be linked to other services of a company.

The right of use is free of charge and non-exclusive.

Duties and responsibilities of the user

When using and distributing materials or products based on them, the user shall:

- mention GTK's rights to the material according to section "General information"
- mention the time when the user acquired the material from GTK's service
- provide a copy of this licence or a link to it
- require that third parties follow the terms and conditions of this licence when granting licences for a product or service that uses the material or a part of it
- remove references to the source if required to do so by GTK.

This licence does not create a cooperation or business relationship between the user and GTK. The terms of this licence do not allow the user to state in conjunction with the use of material that GTK would support or recommend such use.

It is the user's responsibility to follow these terms of use and the user's obligation to protect the material from use that violates these terms. If these terms are neglected or violated, GTK is entitled to receive compensation for damages.

Duties and responsibilities of GTK

GTK ensures that GTK has the right to grant the licence.

The material is licensed as is and GTK shall not be held responsible for any errors in the material or service. GTK shall be free from liability for direct or consequential damages arising from by the use of the material or service. GTK disclaims any warranty for the validity or up to date status of the material.

GTK is not obligated to ensure the continuous availability of the data, nor to announce in advance the interruption or cessation of availability.

Jurisdiction

Finnish law shall apply to this licence.

Changes to this licence

GTK may at any time change the licence terms of the distributed materials or apply a different licence to a material. The terms of this licence shall, however, still apply to such materials that have been taken into use prior to the change of the licence.
